

BIBLICAL SIGNIFICANCE of Intercessory Prayer

1 Jesus as the Ultimate Intercessory

Jesus is portrayed as the ultimate mediator between God and humanity. In Hebrews 7:25, it is written that Jesus "always lives to intercede for them," and Romans 8:34 states that Christ "is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us."

2 Intercession as a Mediator Role

In the Old Testament, figures like Abraham, Moses, and Samuel acted as intercessors, praying on behalf of others. This role is highlighted in Genesis 18, where Abraham interceded for Sodom, and in Numbers 12:13, where Moses prayed for Miriam.

3 Encouragement to Intercede

The New Testament encourages believers to engage in intercessory prayer. For example, 1 Timothy 2:1-2 urges prayers for all people, including those in authority, so that believers may lead peaceful lives.

4 Power of Righteous Prayer

James 5:16 emphasizes the power of the prayer of a righteous person, stating it has great power and can lead to healing.

5 Spirit's Intercession

Romans 8:26 notes that the Spirit helps believers in their weakness by interceding with groanings too deep for words.

PRAYER WARRIORS

The concept of prayer intercessors is deeply rooted in the Bible, emphasizing the role of believers in praying for others.

This practice is seen as a way to seek God's mercy, guidance, or intervention in the lives of others.

MARK 11:17

"Is it not written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?'"

Intercession is Important in our Christian lives

SAMPLE of Maine's Prayer Meeting Flow

1 Timothy 2:1-2

"First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way."

Hebrews 7:25

"Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them."

James 5:16

"Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working."
